

Creswell School

Building of outdoor classroom and painting of planters

Chesterfield CP teams have built a large, roofed classroom in the school grounds where classes can be held in the good weather. The building incorporates bench seating and planters and sits on a raised wooden base.

Offenders under supervision have also painted existing planters and benching, and have created new bark-chipping paths through a woodland area in the grounds.

